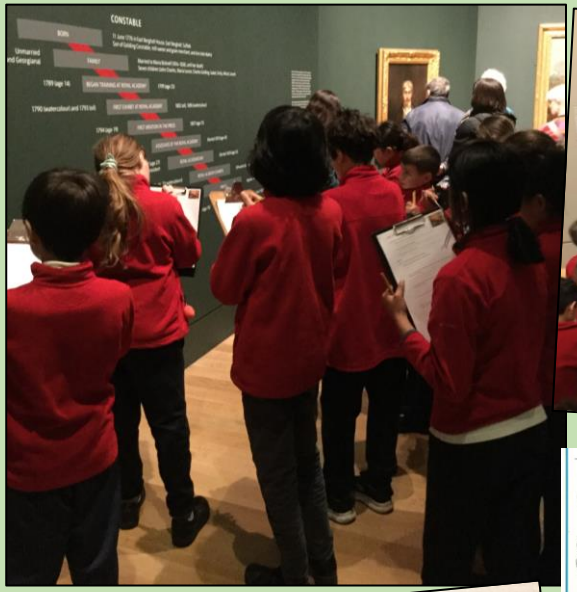
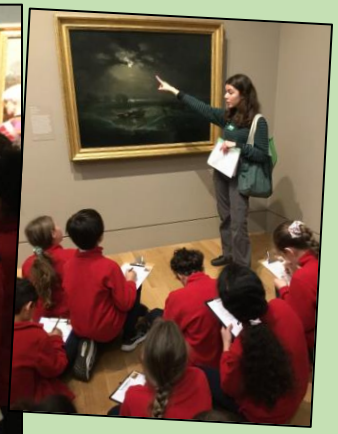
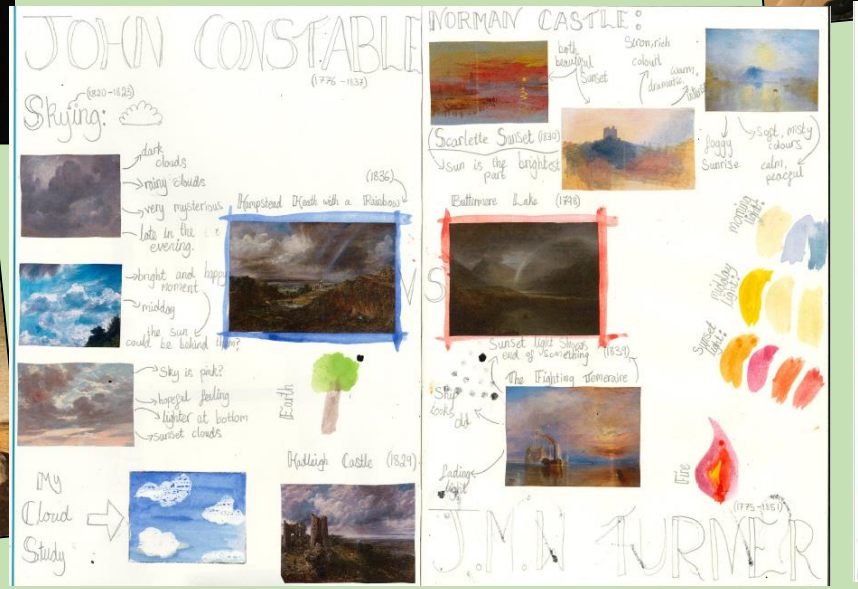
Turner and Constable at Tate Britain

Year 5 went on a trip to the Tate Britain to see the Turner and Constable exhibition. They examined the different paintings, and considered similarities and differences between the artists' styles. After looking at a range of paintings, they reflected on which artist they preferred. Back at school, they were inspired by the artworks they had seen and created artist studies in their sketch books.






February 2026