

Christ Church Arts Project
Autumn 2019
Reception

Reception were inspired by natural sculpture artist Andy Goldsworthy. They visited the Heath to collect natural materials to make their own self-portraits. They then used the materials to create life-size pictures of themselves, carefully thinking about what colours and textures could represent their different features.

