

Christ Church Arts Project, Autumn 2019

Year 6

Year 6 took ownership of their art by taking their own photos of the school and the church. They thought about the composition of the photos and which specific parts of the church and school were special to them. They learnt to trace and leave a print of their chosen photo. After that, they experimented with pen techniques to show both dark and light as well as perspective within the composition.