

Strings assembly
January 2020

Can you spot the differences between the guitar and the ukulele?

We all learnt lots about playing the guitar and the ukulele when we met Martha from the strings club. We loved listening to her play, too. We learnt the names for the different parts of the instruments, how to change the pitch with the tuning pegs and some of us even got to have a go!