

Cooking Home Learning

It has been fantastic to see so many of you using your DT skills to help cook in your families – even a lasagne (quite a bit bigger than the one we cooked in class!).

It has been excellent to see you working together with your siblings and the wide variety of cooking happening.

I wonder if you all cleaned up the kitchen after too?!