

Christ Church Rainbows 1

In our assembly, sent out to all staff members and families this week, we thought about how we can still be a strong school community even though we are all at home. We also thought about how we are all part of a bigger community of children learning at home all over the UK at the moment. Look at our beautiful rainbows!

