

At school this week...

We've found some time for some fun in the playground!

We've been working hard completing the tasks set by our teachers! We have been doing a range of activities including counting, reading, art, phonics, learning how to tie shoelaces, science, cooking and much more!

We've been joining in with PE with Joe everyday!