The parting I like, is called 'The shadow of death' by a Victorian man called William Holman Hunt. I like it because it shows Mary that Jesus is going to die because the wooden piece where the tools are hanging looks like a cross. And his shadow is over it. There's three wise men's gifts are in the chest in the corner which is an interesting detail.

Golden Certificate in Year 2 for

Ryan

Day 10 English: Superhero Poem

If I was a superhero,
I would see
Homelessness, rubbish, global warming and viruses!
And I would be strong, like a Bontoman!

If I was a superhero,
I would wear a cape,
And watch the bad guys quake!

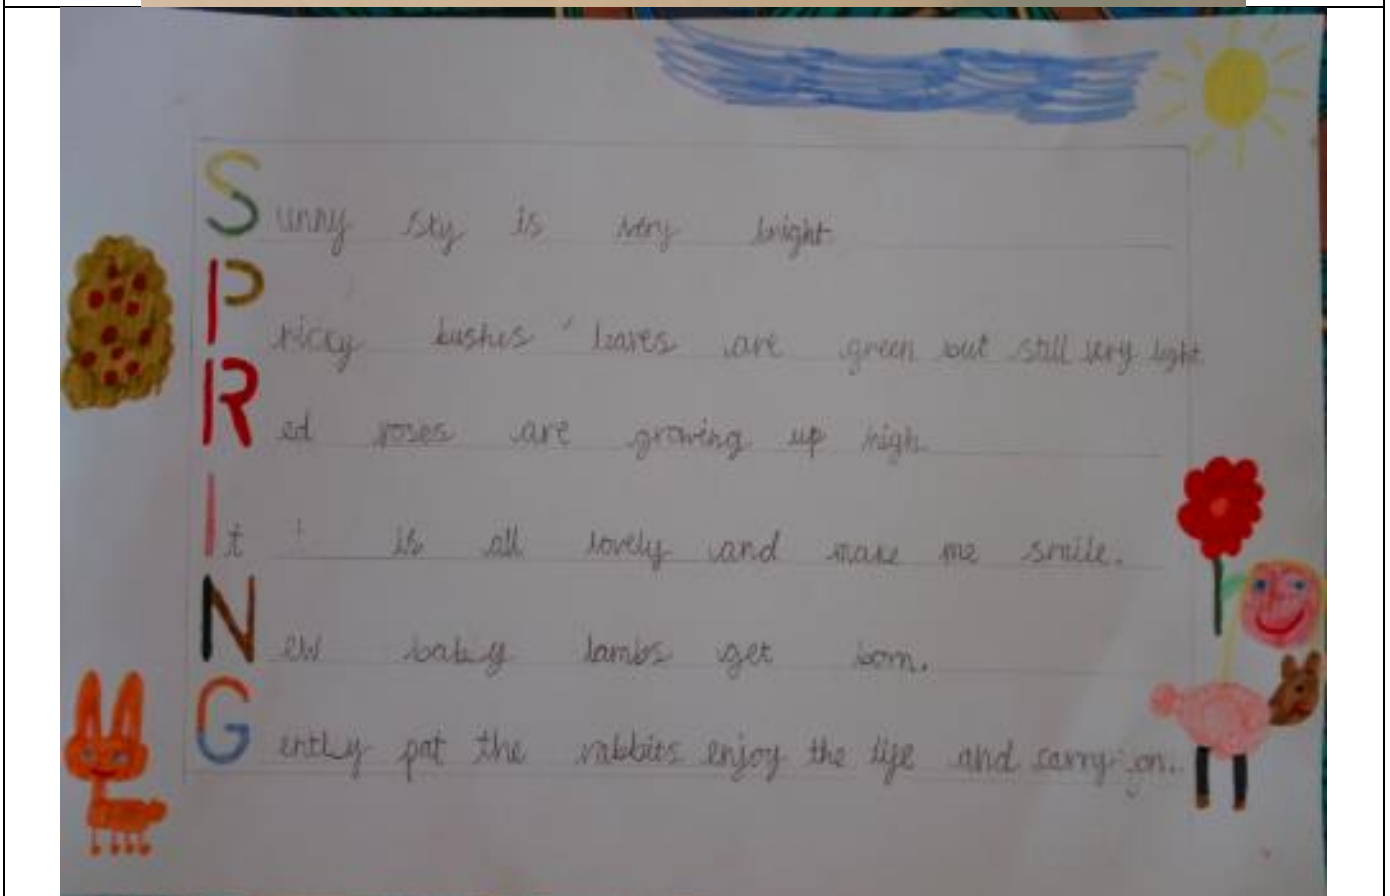

If I was a superhero,
I would blow like a king
And make the whole world sing!

If I was a superhero,
I would fly into space,
To help save the Human Race!

If I was a superhero...
Hang on... maybe I am!
You and me and he and she are already like Superman!
