

At school this week...

We've been enjoying our daily exercise in the playground and in the hall!

We've been working hard completing the tasks set by our teachers! We have been doing a range of activities including painting in the style of Kandinsky, researching the Romans, learning sign-language and exploring light using torches.

We've found some time to look after the school flowers!