

Skellig work

This week, we started our new class book 'Skellig'. Miss Parsons is recording it chapter by chapter for us to listen and respond to. We listened to the description of the garage and then had the task to draw or describe what we imagined it to be like.

Book covers - Using what they had read or listened to so far, Year 6 also created their own book covers