

Year 3 have used all that they have learnt from the vivid imagery in their class book "The Iron Man" by Ted Hughes to sketch their own version of the Iron-man.

In doing so, we have explored different shading techniques and used light/medium/dark tones to imitate the effect of light on 3D surfaces.

Ava took this a step further and incorporated little houses and a shadow to further develop the perspective within her picture. Well done everybody!