

Reception Class made their own water xylophones!

Home school Wednesday 6th May

We explored scales by making our own water xylophones. We can make descending scales by going from the highest sound to the lowest sound!

