

PSHE WEEK

We have focused on communities and living in the wider world. We have tried to think about the many communities we are part of and what we can do to improve the world we live in.

Many of us commented that lockdown has increased the importance that we place upon our local community whether that be our building or our street.

