

Year 4 PSHE week What are rights?

Rights

Write your answers to the questions below to show all you have learnt and understood about the rights all people share.

What are rights?

Rights are sort of rules for people from birth to death. You need to follow those rules forever.

What are some of the rights that all people share?

Article 24: Fresh water, nutritious food, lots of entertainment. Article 31: Every child has the right to play and rest.

What are some of the special rights that children have?

To have a nuro doctor if hurt
To have enough school education
To have enough food and water

Why do you think it is important to respect the rights of everyone?

You need to respect the rights because for example if you are in need for a doctor and they don't help you then you will suffer.

Thursday 14th May 2020
LI: To learn about respecting everyone's rights.

What are rights?
Rights are things everybody should have. Every human being, it doesn't matter where they are. Rights are important and special. Rights help people feel and be safe.

What are some of the rights that all people share?

Thursday 14th May 2020
LI: To learn about respecting people's rights

Q. What are rights?
A. Rights are rules about what a person is allowed to do and have.

Q. What are some of the rights all people share?
A. To be treated fairly, to give everyone the same amount of importance,...

What are rights?
Rights are things that everyone can do or be without dispute. All people need the same things, and all people should be able to have them.

What are some of the rights all people share?
• To be safe
• To have access to doctors and medical requirements
• To have their views listened to
• To have a safe and comfortable home

What are some of the special rights children have?
Children have the rights to be protected to have an education to have access to doctors and medicine to have the things they need to be safe and comfortable at home to be heard and taken seriously.

Why do you think it is important to respect the rights?
Because everyone is equal and we all need our rights, so why not respect other people's rights?

Thursday 14th May 2020
LI: To learn about respecting everyone's rights.

1. What are rights?
Something that people should be able to do or have.

2. What are some of the rights that all people share?
- To have your own opinion
- Freedom of expression
- To be born free and equal
- No slavery
- No torture

3. What are some of the special rights that children have?
- Having your own opinions
- Having your opinions heard
- Freedom of thought
- Freedom of religion

4. Why do you think it is important to respect the rights of everyone?
Because everyone should be able to have the same way of living and have the opportunity to have a fun and exciting life.

Rights

Write your answers to the questions below to show all you have learnt and understood about the rights all people share.

What are rights?
Rights are something that every person should have, just because they are a human being.

What are some of the rights that all people share?
Some of the rights that all people share are right to privacy, freedom, equality, life, vote and fair trial (etc).

What are some of the special rights that children have?
Children have the rights to be protected to have an education to have access to doctors and medicine to have the things they need to be safe and comfortable at home to be heard and taken seriously.

Why do you think it is important to respect the rights of everyone?
Respecting human rights makes the world a better, happier and safer place.

We thought about rights, why they are important and how we can respect them.

Thursday 14th May 2020
LI: To learn about respecting everyone's rights

1. What are rights?
A right is something that a person is entitled to just because they are a human being.

2. What are some of the rights that all people share?
Everyone has the right to be respected, everyone has the right to live their life, everyone has the right to good and healthy, everyone has the right to play and relax, everyone has the right to be treated fairly.

3. What are some of the special rights that children have?
The right to be protected, the right to go to school, the right to be cared when sick, the right to be heard and taken seriously.

Thursday 14th May 2020
LI: To learn about respecting everyone's rights.

Questions

What are rights?
They are things that every human being has. Every person must have it no matter what they come from or who they are. What are the rights that all people share?
The right to a freedom and the right to have your religion, live your life peacefully, ~~discrimination~~ discrimination.

What are some of the special rights that children have?
Most have education, good and water, taking part in a wide range of activities, ~~not~~ able to have their views taken seriously, allowed to meet in groups and clubs, ~~with~~ everyone?
Why do you think that it is important to respect rights of everyone?
Everyone is a human being and even if we are different in some ways like skin color, nationality and how we are all human beings and we should respect each other.

Thursday 14th May 2020
LI: To learn about respecting everyone's rights.

What are rights?
A right is something that every human in this world should have. Human beings are all different looking, but they all deserve to be treated the same way. Rights make people in the world feel safer, and if they are followed, the world should be a safer place.

What are some of the rights that all people share?
Everyone has the right to freedom of religion and belief. Everyone has the right to not be mistreated or wrongly punished by the state.

What are some of the special rights that children have?
Every child has the right to be protected. Every child has the right to have an education. Every child has the right to have access to doctors and medicine. Every child has the right to have the things they need to be safe and comfortable at home. Every child has the right to be heard and taken seriously.

Why do you think it is important to respect the rights of everyone?
Because then the world will feel and be safer.