Chorus
The sunshines in the air
I can feel it everywhere
The children are running and we have a big lunch to fill up our bellies with lots of jelly

verse 1
It's time to be grateful
The nature is beautiful We are grateful for our family and show them all our love

Chorus....
verse 2
The rain is pouring down, the sun is coming out and giving the rainbow a shout.

LAST SUMMER

1. I remember last Summer, Running around in the sunshine,
And when I am older-
I hope I won't forget this time.

2. Ice cream and jelly,
Waiting for us on the table,
We both ate so much,
Or just as much as we were able.

Bridge
I woke up with a rainbow in my head,
It had all the colours, just as you said,
And it led me right back-Right back to last Summer.

Chorus
And if I see you again
It'll take me right back
To last Summer
Can't we just turn back the clocks?
Turn back the clocks-
To last Summer?

3. I counted the time,
On an old Dandelion I found there,
I don't feel the cold
But it's getting so late, that I don't dare

(Don't dare to dream of you my friend,
The times we had will never end
They go around in my head, Over and over again)

Repeat Bridge and Chorus

Sunny Day Evelyn

Lying on the glossy grass, Watching the clouds go past.
Rainbows appear in the air, flowers growing everywhere.

Sunshine in the sky,
running as if you can fly.
Jelly legs as I run,
even though I'm having so much fun.
Bunnies hop up and down,
the rustling of the breeze is the only sound.

Daisies growing in the ground, birds tweeting all around.
Sunshine shining in every spot, everything feels so hot.

Sunshine in the sky,
running as if you can fly.
Jelly legs as I run,
even though I'm having so much fun.
Bunnies hop up and down,
The rustling of the breeze is the only sound.

When it's morning, on my toast I put jelly, Then it gets straight to my hungry belly!
Some days there is sunshine, but today the sky is sad-Because it's about to rain, and that is so really bad!

And on the dark side of the sky,
I see a rainbow that isn't shy...
And when the plumber has finished plumber-I'll go outside and I'll start running...
When I am outside, I'll see a rainbow, It's so wide!

Claire is in the sunshine, happily running, Mama is in the sunshine, grumpy moaning Mum is on a jelly, running away, Dad is in a rainbow, getting some hay, fine

The sun is bright, Sucking up the rain
We are going out again,
Safe and sound
Now let's play,
We are marching away,
D.L. and fine

Year 3 have had a fantastic time writing their own lyrics to a song and, for the very brave, recording a performance!

hilly every day children go to play and there filling with joy but when they go away they make their clothes all day they plant the trees all day which happens and joy as a jambo shines over.
Then they eat jelly and cake and when the sun sets and the sunset.

I have been so very impressed by the humour within many of the lyrics that children have written and the performances.

Our next task is to create some actions to go with our songs!

Music

It started by a snore
from a boy in the breeze They've had to stay at home But at least we had Roblox where we room

Mum and Dad as teachers, hey!
Is it meant to be this way?
Among laughing with Joe Wicks
There is lessons lots of stick!
But the sun is in the sky Jelly, cake and banana pie

It's gone on for weeks and weeks And I can get up late, oh what!
Mum's good in my timony Home schooling is quite funny

Mum and Dad are teachers, hey!
Is it meant to be this way?
Running laughing with Joe Wicks
There is lessons lots of stick!
But the rainbows and pots of gold The sun to be had with near and dud!

I believe if you believe
By Senna Gallardo

When you're in your room at night, you have to shut your eyes very tight.
Then you see the rainbow through the sunshine, and you're painting with the stars and eating jelly from the light.

Can you imagine you're in the clouds, can you imagine that you can fly?
Because you can fly, you can be in the clouds, if you believe, if you believe. All you have to do is believe.

The next time you try to see rainbows, Sunshine, jelly and you'll running with the stars. It will be even brighter if you just believe.

Can you imagine you're in the clouds, can you imagine that you can fly?
Because you can fly, you can be in the clouds, if you believe, if you believe.
All you have to do is believe!
