

Year 1 whole class artwork – The Right to Play

Inspired by Keith Haring

For our class piece of art we posed in different play positions for a photograph. We then traced over our posed photo. Finally, we used the tracing paper to create a stencil which we then drew around on hand-painted paper.

Article 31: The right to relax and play.