

RE-What makes a place special?

By Reception

This week we started our topic on Churches. We tried to answer the big question: What makes a place special?

Reception collected photos or drew a picture of their special place!

"It's where I can be happy"

"A special place is where there are people who I love and where there is exciting fun!"

"It is precious as something nice has happened there."