

Learning about time

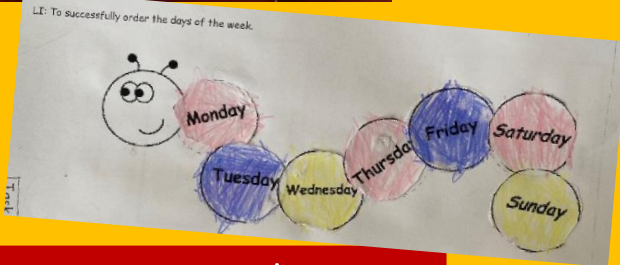

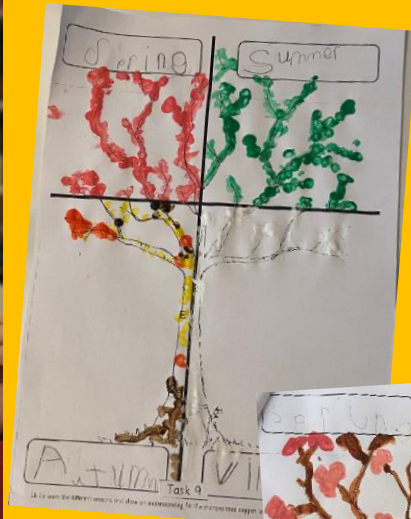

By Reception

This week we started to think about time. We thought about what we use time for and how we can record time throughout a year, month and a day.

We made some super seasons pictures!

We learnt all about daily routines and the different times in the day!

We recapped our learning on days of the week!

