

Year 3 have been drawing sketch maps this week of their local area. In doing so, we considered the different land uses (retail, residential, office, hospitality, public services etc) and then challenged ourselves to look for clues as to what the land might previously have been used for. Thinking about past uses of land like this will lead us nicely into our Local History topic.

