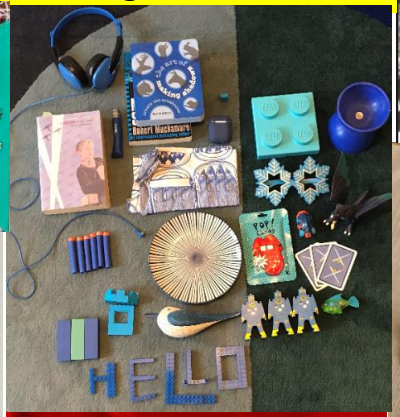
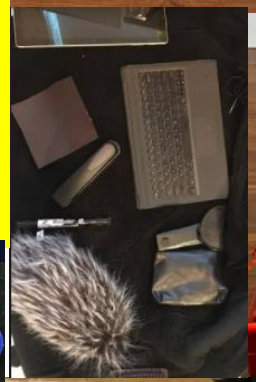
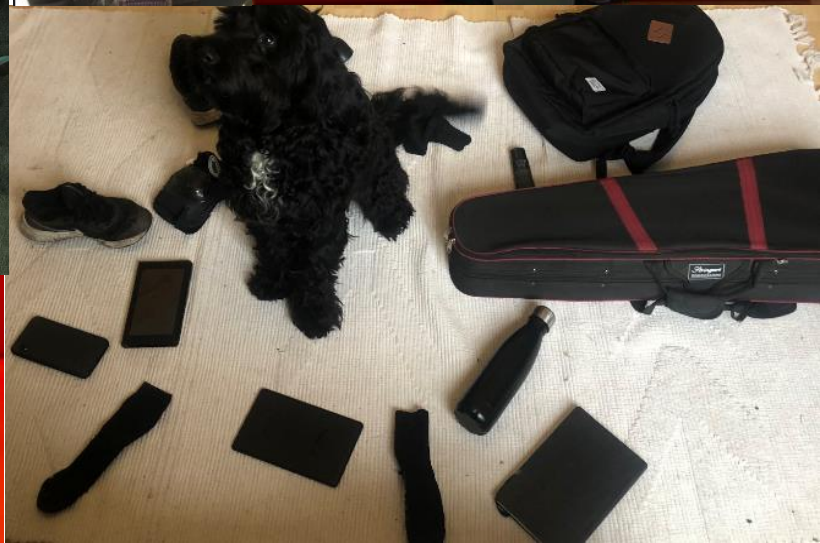
Year 6- Flat Lays – January 2021

We chose a colour to reflect our mood or a colour that inspires us today to create a flat lay picture. We searched high and low to find things in our homes that are that colour or close to that colour and then thought carefully about the composition of the objects, before taking a photograph.






Can you spot the dog?