

Our Elephant Parade- By Reception

We learnt what the word unique means and thought about diversity. We read the story of Elmer the elephant and then made our own elephant parades full of wonderful costumes to showcase our own personalities!

