

Thinking about wellbeing By Reception

On Wednesday we thought about how we can keep our minds healthy and safe. We learnt a little bit about what mental health is and we spread some happiness by wearing lots of bright colours!

We spread cheer by making some inspirational bunting!

We made posters to think about who could help us if we were feeling sad, upset, angry or in danger.

