

School group – week 7

This week in school, everyone has made a great start to our whole school Art Project, creating and cutting their own beautiful painted papers....

...and there has been lots more hard work including creating online safety posters, learning about scaling in maths, baking Jewish challah bread and even some mouth painting to learn about disability rights.

