

Year 1 Home Learning – Online Safety Day

fact about a crocodile's tongue
 1 crocodiles can lay eggs
 2 crocodiles can swim
 3 crocodiles can lay their eggs
 4 when baby crocodiles hatch from their eggs they are only 10cm
 5 crocodiles can lay their eggs
 6 crocodiles can lay their eggs
 7 crocodiles can lay their eggs
 8 crocodiles can lay their eggs
 9 crocodiles can lay their eggs
 10 crocodiles can lay their eggs

TRUE	FALSE
Greenwich	Wrenwong
Correct	Fake Fiction
Trust wofee	Imagined
Real	Untrue
RIGHT	WTF
FACT	Untrue

Animal Facts / Fiction

Owl fact page

True ✓
 Snowy owls are mostly white
 Snowy owls live on the tundra
 They eat Lemmings

False ✗
 Snowy owls watch TV
 they eat socks
 they know how to spell

Parrot

Fact #7: Parrots taste with the roots of their mouths

Fake
 Parrots play in the snow

True
 False

It is a bird
 It can live in at home
 False

Hedgehogs curl into a ball while they sleep and when they face enemies.

Hedgehogs build dams.

• False
 • True

Snowy owl

- The females are more white.
- The snowy owl is a nocturnal bird.
- They have black claws
- They are small owls
- They have a great hearing
- They have blue eyes

Owls are nocturnal animals.
 They eat insects and small birds.

Owls have very big eyeballs.

Owls eat other owls.

Owls can not hiss

Orcas eat sharks

Grogs sleep in baths

Year 1 learnt that information online can be true, untrue or someone's opinion. They learnt to check facts by talking to an adult, looking on another website or finding out the answer by investigating themselves.

Lins were fee

Lins were clothes

Lins pet meet Lins

Lins were snow

Lins can swim

Lins can fly