

Year 3 finished their work on Myths and Legends by creating their own mythical creature and writing a character description inspired by the creatures found in the myths we have learned about.

To write a character description of a mythical creature
 Underneath King Georges castle, in a deep dark cave lives Red Tooth, the gentlest of creatures. His round black head is covered in a crown of small sharp thorns. He keeps watch with his emerald green slits of eyes. A mouth of teeth as sharp as spears, normally dripping in fresh red blood.

In the forest, lives the Heagle. The Heagle is a fierce creature which has dirty, strong lion paws which can break down trees to get the honey or sap. Amazingly, the Heagle has gigantic, colorful eagle wings that help him fly up to 200 miles per hour. Unexpectedly, he has dead, powerful horse hooves which can run up to 100 miles per hour. His mass of long, straggly

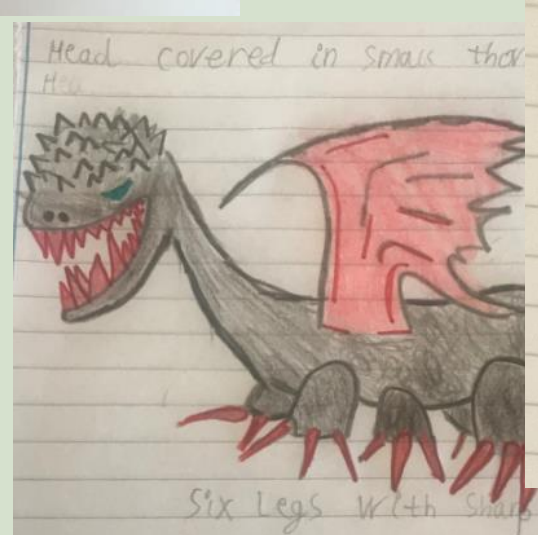

She has long, pink, curly hair. Fovera has big, black eyes. If she swims past you you will have bad luck forever! Fovera can fly smoothly and swim quite quickly! She can scream so loudly she could block your ear! Silently, Fovera can turn you into something! Fovera eats very noisily and she gobbles up her food very quickly. Fovera speaks very loudly and scarily.

The Super Eagle dog is a small but powerful creature. His huge wings lift him high into the air and his long, strong, athletic fast paws take him speeds up to two hundred miles an hour. His thin, furry body helps him glide through the air. He has special breathing so he can breathe at high altitudes and fly above the clouds. The amazing dog has an invisible, making soft elegant tail and velvet red laser beams can come out of his eyes. He has got super Sweetly she has little teeth made out of toffee. Her voice is high-pitched but extremely tender like the sound of the flute. She humps as elegantly as a tune on the piccolo. Her body is made out of soft delicate sponge.

He has a booming and echoing voice his teeth are as sharp as knives. On his body he has green and black skin and dark green eyes. He has a long slimy body and a long long tail. He is as speedy as a shell and he has amazing bite power.

Happily, the Mermicorn has a shimmering horn that glows in the dark. Her tail splashed against the beautiful sea. Graciously, the mermicorn moves her tail gently to get far away. Her horn has a breathing hole so she can breathe underwater. The Mermicorn's nose is very sensitive and checks if the mermicorn is safe.

The mermicorn's eye is beautiful and helps her guide her to her family. Her ear senses danger around and she can hear if anyone anywhere is also in danger. Her tail makes her go very fast when she needs to go super fast.
