

Expressing Emotions in Pictures

Year 5

This week we looked at ways we can make figures convey emotions. We thought of a range of emotions and acted these out. We tried to use our whole bodies when we did this and then drew the emotion we had acted out. We then drew a large shape that we associated with the emotion we had drawn and chose a coloured background that we felt matched the emotion.