

Masks come in all sorts of shapes and proportions. These have hidden meanings:

- Eyes wide and often shut and lines near the mouth represent tranquillity
- Masks with small eyes and mouths represent humility and humbleness
- A large bulging forehead or rounded mask represents wisdom
- Other masks that have exaggerated long faces and broad foreheads symbolize power
- Some tribes carve masks with round eyes to represent alertness and anger

