

This week in our home learning, children in lots of classes have been learning about Article 31 which is all about children's right to rest, play and take part in cultural and artistic activities.

We have been creating dens to relax in!

We have been learning how to create some amazing drawings by following online tutorials.

We have been planning our ideal weekends!

