

Year 6- Science Investigation LI To investigate how light travels in straight lines

Year 6 started their new science topic of 'Light' this week. They carried out an investigation to see light travelling in straight lines through circular holes spread out at regular distances. The aim was for their light source to reach the target they had made. It was a huge success and year 6 showed that they were super scientists.

