

PSHE Week

Caring for our local community

We have missed visiting Henderson Court Age UK centre this year and performing songs or taking part in gardening or crafts. We still wanted to send something to those that attend the centre to make them smile! We made a virtual concert filled with poems, stories and songs!

