

On Monday 4th of October, Year 3 went to the British Museum to learn more about ancient Egypt. In the morning, half of the class toured the Egyptian exhibit and completed work linked to the digital workshop, while the other half of the class attended the digital workshop which focused on decoding ancient Egyptian tomb paintings. Then in the afternoon the two groups swapped activities.

