

PSHE Week-Friendship Bracelets

We have been learning about positive relationships and building friendship through mutual respect and thinking about the feelings of others. We are also thinking about how staying connected to our friends helps our positive mental well-being. All the adults and children in our school made a friendship bracelet and had great fun swapping them with a new friend!

