

Friendship bracelets: Meeting and making a new friend in our school!

As part of our PSHE learning about positive relationships and friendships, each child and adult made a friendship bracelet to swop with a new friend in our school. We had great fun playing together in a special break time, meeting and playing with our new friends!

