

On Wednesday 23rd November 2022 we had our Autumn music assembly - so many children wanted to play their instruments to the whole school and their family! We could only fit 28 in this time, the rest will get a chance to play in our Spring music assembly. Well done to all the children who played beautifully. What a range of instruments children played, hopefully this will inspire others to start to learn or keep practising an instrument too!

