

Year 1 CAP - Self portraits inspired by Pablo Picasso and Eric Carle

Inspired by illustrator Eric Carle, Year 1 began by creating their own papers by mixing two different colours together and then scratching into the paint with the end of a paint brush to create texture. Next, they cut out the shape of their head. Finally, they cut out the different features of their faces in contrasting colours to make them really stand out, jumbling them up like Pablo Picasso!

November 2022