

Debating week – lunch time debate topics

As part of our debating week, children in each class have been discussing and debating different topics each lunch time. They have been practising listening to each other, showing respect for others' views and backing up their opinions by saying 'because' and giving with facts and reasons. Adults have been joining in, too, and there have been some very interesting discussions! What are your opinions?

Do all artists use paint?

Smoking should be banned.

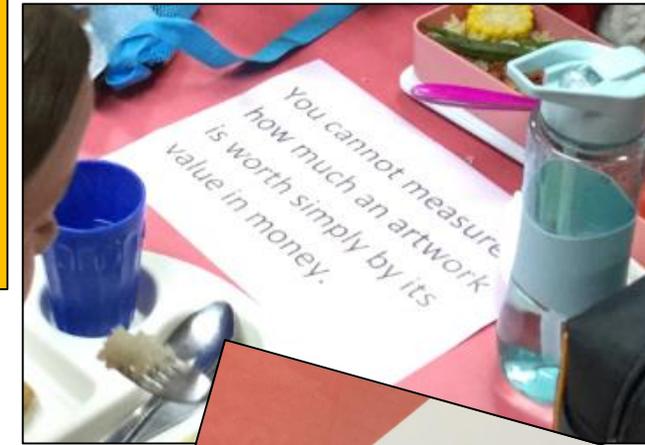

I should be able to eat anything I like.

We should go to the Heath every day!

Ancient Egyptians left behind nothing that we use today.

Christmas in Australia is better than Christmas in the UK.

Drawings are always art.

We need more tourism in mountain areas.

Running is the best type of exercise.

Sport should be taught every day in schools.

It is not artwork unless it can be hung on the wall.
