

ROYAL FREE CHARITY

As part of our PSHE week, learning about how to be an active citizen in our local community, we have been supporting the Royal Free Hospital Charity. We heard all about the charity's work from a representative in an assembly and we used our art skills to make thank you cards for staff or birthday cards for patients for the charity to distribute. We hope each of our cards brightens up somebody's day!

May 2023

Your support is making a difference

Patient services

Supporting
NHS staff

Research