

Year 1 National Gallery Visit – June 2023

On our visit to the National Gallery, we looked at lots of different paintings and spotted lots that we recognised including: Henri Rousseau's Tiger in a Tropical Storm and some paintings by John Constable, who lived and painted near our school in Hampstead. We loved the quiet feeling in the gallery and really enjoyed drawing some of our favourite paintings!

