

Year 6 went to the Linnean Society in central London to learn all about classification. As part of our Science curriculum, we learnt about how living things are classified using an organised system, learnt about how living things are named and created our own species! We also learnt about Darwin's voyage on the Beagle and saw notebooks and drawings full of Darwin's own notes and discoveries!

