

Year 4 and 5 trip to Bloomsbury Science Festival

October 2023

Year 4 and 5 recapped and practised lots of their working scientifically skills at the Bloomsbury Science Festival. They investigated electrical conductivity and batteries, made batteries from potatoes, recapped the functions of parts of the body and were able to use scientific equipment such as microscopes, VR headsets and computer modelling. They even got to learn about and see a thermal imaging drone!

