

Year 5 & 6 attended a Science and Sustainability workshop at the Royal Institution! They learnt about how problem solving and creativity in science can be used to come up with solutions for living more sustainably. Everyone took part in an investigation of how hydrogel material can be used to reduce plastic waste. The children also made coloured dye using blueberries! November 2023

