

Year 1 visit to London Transport Museum

January 2024

To follow on from our history learning about how transport has changed, we went to visit the London Transport Museum. We saw lots of transport through the ages including an omnibus drawn by horses and a steam rider! We also learnt about the first London bus driver from the Caribbean, Joe Clough.

