

Wren 300- The rebuilding of London after the Great Fire of London - Year 2

January 2024

As part of our history learning, we went on a Sir Christopher Wren tour. We learnt the story of his life, his expertise and passion in architecture, designed our own churches using a quill, tried on traditional clothing- like that at the time of the Fire and even stopped at Pudding Lane, where it is thought the fire started.