

PSHE Week-Friendship Bracelets

We have been learning about positive relationships and building friendship through mutual respect and thinking about the feelings of others. We all made a friendship bracelet and had great fun swapping them with a new friend in our school!

I feel like I have a new friend in the playground now.

It is nice to get to know different people and share games and books.

