

Camden Football League

Our girls and boys football teams have played their first matches in the Camden football league over the past few weeks. The league continues until February – good luck to both teams!

