

PSHE-Supporting our local community

During our PSHE week in the summer term, some classes went to a local Age UK centre called Henderson Court. We really enjoyed joining in with a range of activities whilst chatting away to our new friends!

We created some wonderful artwork in an arts and crafts session, stretched and exercised in yoga and entertained everyone with Reception's singing and dancing!

