

On Friday 19th September, Year 5 went to Buckingham Palace to do landscape drawing on the lawn. Emma taught us about perspective and vanishing points. Some of us were so engrossed that we ended up with pencil lead all over our hands! After our session, we were lucky enough to leave through the front of the palace!