

Rights Respecting Schools primary schools event

February 2026

A group of Christ Church children represented the school brilliantly at the first ever Camden Rights Respecting Schools primary event! They took part in activities learning about rights with children from thirteen other schools, as well as enjoying a fantastic break time all together – we all have the right to play! We also thought about how we can take action to protect the rights of other children, too.

