

Friday 22nd May 2026 Heath Hands volunteering

As part of our whole school PSHE week focused on being a good citizen, Year 3 helped the Heath Hands team remove an invasive plant called yellow balsam from a section of Hampstead Heath. It was great fun being out in nature, and we all felt really proud to have played an active role in caring for our local area.

