

Visiting the Biennale Exhibition

The children really enjoyed going to The Camden Schools Art Biennale at Kings Cross. In the exhibition many of the children were able to see their own artwork on display and enjoyed looking at a range of sculptures, collages, drawings, paintings and films created by other children across Camden.

